

National Holiday

words + music by Jes Hudak

v1:
There is a reason why we've come into each others lives,
When something is meant to be, no one can deny it, you or me.

pre-ch:
And if I could find a way to show it to the world,
What I already know is true - that you - chorus:

You're a national holiday, I can only hope by my side you'll stay,
Cuz you are the reason why I believe love is still alive,
When you kissed my face and you held my hand,
I knew I'd never be the same again,
You're a national holiday... today + everyday!

v2:
Everyday that goes by, can't believe how lucky am I,
Just to be close to you is like a dream finally coming true.

Oh no here comes the parade,
All because one day you were made into...
a national holiday...
